'Young Game Changers of Indian Realty 2025' by Outlook Group

Bengaluru, October 30th, 2025: BHADRA Group, one of Bengaluru's leading real estate developers, has been recognized as one of the 'Young Game Changers of Indian Realty 2025' by Outlook Group. The recognition was conferred at a grand ceremony held at New Delhi recently. The annual event celebrates emerging leaders who are redefining India's urban landscape through innovation, vision, and transformative leadership.

The accolade underscores BHADRA Group's commitment to design excellence, ethical business practices, and customer-centric development. Under the leadership of Sarveshaa SB, Chairman & Managing Director, the company has built a strong reputation for creating high-quality, contemporary living spaces that embody both aesthetic appeal and long-term value.

Commenting on the recognition, Sarveshaa SB, Chairman & Managing Director, BHADRA Group, said, "It is an honour to be recognised among India's 'Young Game Changers'. This acknowledgment reflects BHADRA's core philosophy that uncompromising quality and design innovation must guide every endeavour we undertake. Our vision is to lead the transformation of Indian real estate, setting new benchmarks that define its future. This recognition is a testament to the collective dedication of the BHADRA team and reinforces our unwavering commitment to creating living spaces that embody trust, excellence, and lasting value."

In the highly competitive Bengaluru real estate market, BHADRA Group stands out for its process-driven approach, on-time project delivery, and transparent practices. The company's projects are distinguished by their architectural precision, structural integrity, and thoughtful integration of sustainability and functionality.

Being honoured among 'Young Game Changers of Indian Realty 2025' further cements BHADRA Group's position as a forward-looking real estate pioneer, dedicated to setting new benchmarks of quality and innovation in the Indian realty sector
